

Tolliver Tales

Over 650 eBook Copies Sold!

CANNAN'S SECRET has proved popular since its official release on the 29th of May as an eBook. Over a hundred copies sold during pre-sale alone (thank you, fans!). Following official release, it remained a hot seller in the top 100 of its increasingly difficult category at Amazon -

Native American Literature. The novel currently has ten reviews, all positive, and a rating of five. We need more ratings and reviews if you can find the time. Thanks!

June 2018 was live radio month for the author with side-by-side live shows. On June 18 Barbara M Hodges was our hostess for the on-line radio talk show Red River Radio: No Limits. Meant to be split between two authors, our part of the show went the entire hour when the second guest was unable to join us. The very next day, June 19 we appeared on the Dave Congalton Show on KVEC Talk Radio 920, live in San Luis Obispo. This was at an old fashion radio studio complete with hanging mikes and headphones. Dave seemed particularly intrigued with my hat and keep coming back to it. For links to both shows, visit RLawsonGamble.com and scroll down. On June 30 we sold and signed books at Bark For Books, one of our favorite events. Local dogs were challenged in races, singing, and various other characteristics. A few local authors joined me, including Petrine Day Mitchum (Robert's daughter) who has written a colorful and fascinating book titled Hollywood Hoofbeats tracing the roll of "leading horses" in the film industry. In early June we received an interesting proposition from two fellow authors to join them in producing a box set of three novellas, one from each of us, to be made available on Amazon in eBook format. Authors Mark Reps and Felix Giordano are both authors in the Native American category at Amazon.

Sisters in Crime Central Coast Chapter President Barbara M Hodges asked us to speak at a meeting. The talk took place July 28 in Nipomo. The crowd of readers and authors was very receptive and attentive. We followed the meeting with a nice meal. New News! We are working hard to release CANAAN'S SECRET in paperback format. The release date is set for September 1. We hope to arrange a series of signings in the area to make it available to all.
